Jackie

We miss you already. You put up a good fight but we realized that the battle was not yours it was the Lord's. You were trying to hold on for us. You knew we were not ready to let you go. There were so many more things I wanted us to do together. The sparkle in your eyes as you would ask us in your soft spoken voice how were we doing let us knew you loved us! Your smile and laugh could brighten up the worst of days. Our lives will be forever blessed because you were in them. My heart is torn to pieces. I keep asking why Lord why, but I know the answer. God decided he needed another Angel in his kingdom and it was time for you to go home. No more doctor visits, no more hospital beds, no more sickness and pain. We wanted you here but God knew best. We can't hold you in our arms anymore, but you will always be in our hearts. I will see you again, until then I love you.

Acknowledgements

The family sincerely appreciates your prayers and many acts of kindness extended to them during their time of bereavement. We pray that God will bless and keep you.

God's Garden

*God looked around His garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon earth
And saw your tired face.
He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering
He knew you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered, "Peace be thine."
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you did not go alone.
For part of us went with you*
